

Questions from John 10.10

*"The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy;
I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full."*

John 10.10

Here are some questions I've been asking related to John 10.10

- What if there really is an enemy seeking to take away the life that God has for me? If that's true, how will I live differently this week? How will this affect the way we lead?
- Why don't many Christians live like there's a real enemy? Why don't I? Do we as a ministry team operate like this is true?
- What if Jesus really does want life for me, full life? How does my view of him need to change this week? How can we communicate this to others?
- What if heaven isn't something we are waiting for, but something that God already brought to us in Jesus? How does my theology need to change?
- If Jesus came to bring life, why are there so many people being hurt in the church these days?
- Who am I becoming? Who are we becoming?
- What kind of environment or culture are we creating?
- What am I really offering my wife?
- How do my children experience me? What message am I giving them?
- How much "true life" do I experience with my friends?
- What are we offering each other?
- What is God saying to me/you/us in this season of life?
